Nexans

INTRO

For a sustainable future

Nexans's commitment to Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is at the heart of Nexans's strategy

Nexans commits to respect fundamental CSR principles, in the areas of:

- the human rights and labour standards,
- the environment,
- the fight against corruption

wherever we operate, whoever we work with

NEXANS expects its suppliers to respect the same principles.

Nexans Purchasing's commitment to CSR

Nexans takes into account several criteria to award business to suppliers, the supplier CSR performance being one of the criteria.

Supplier's CSR performance is notably based on the supplier's CSR scorecard (certificate), issued by an independent CSR expert, internationally recognized (such as EcoVadis) as well as CSR audits on site, if any.

Nexans suppliers are encouraged to get their CSR performance assessed, certified by a CSR scorecard, and up-dated regularly.

Nexans reserves the status of preferred supplier to suppliers with a good CSR performance (among other strengths) and supports suppliers who improve their CSR performances in a continuous and sustainable way.

Nexans reserves the right to delist a supplier who would not respect the CSR principles.

Nexans Suppliers' commitment to CSR

Nexans suppliers shall commit to the CSR principles described below, for all their activities and sites, and ensure that their own suppliers adhere to similar principles.

Nexans suppliers shall implement a continuous improvement CSR action plan. Areas for improvement are also highlighted in the supplier CSR scorecard. Nexans will be glad to support suppliers to identify actions and share the best practices.

KEY PRINCIPLES

1. Human Rights & Labour Standards

FORCED & CHILD LABOUR

Nexans suppliers shall eliminate all forms of illegal, forced, or compulsory labour and modern slavery, defined as the recruitment, movement, harbouring or receiving of children, women, or men using force, coercion, abuse of vulnerability, deception, or other means for the purpose of exploitation.

The term “children” refers to any person under the age of 16, or under the age for completing compulsory education, or under the minimum age for employment in the country, whichever is greatest. Workers under the age of 18 shall not perform work that is likely to jeopardize their health or safety, including night shifts.

All work must be voluntary, and workers shall be free to leave work at any time or terminate their employment.

Employers and agents may not hold or otherwise destroy, conceal, confiscate or deny access by employees to their identity or immigration documents, such as government-issued identification, passports or work permits, unless such holdings are required by law.

Workers shall not be required to pay employers’ or agents’ recruitment fees or other related fees for their employment. Deductions from wages as a disciplinary measure shall not be permitted.

DIVERSITY & FAIRNESS

Nexans suppliers shall respect equal opportunities rights and seek to provide their employees with a work environment free of discrimination or harassment of any kind whatsoever. Nexans suppliers’ employees are treated with fairness and dignity.

LABOUR RELATIONS

Nexans suppliers shall respect the right of associations, in compliance with local laws. Suppliers respect the right of employees to form or join the unions and workers’ organizations of their choice and to participate in collective negotiations.

KEY PRINCIPLES

WORKING HOURS & TRAINING

Nexans suppliers shall comply with local legislation regarding working hours and minimum wages and strive to provide its employees with development programs and trainings.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the local law, a workweek should not be more than 60 hours per week, including overtime, except in emergency or unusual situations. Workers must be allowed at least one day off every seven days.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Nexans suppliers shall deploy necessary resources to ensure the health and safety of their employees in their workplace. Risks linked to their activities shall be identified, evaluated and either eliminated or mitigated through a health and safety management plan, established on the basis of international standards.

GOODS AND CONFLICT MINERALS

Nexans suppliers who supply goods containing minerals extracted from mines, shall meet the standards of international responsible sourcing of minerals. That is of the utmost importance to prevent child labour, forced labour and the financing of armed groups in politically unstable areas.

Nexans suppliers shall make their due diligence on the origin of the minerals they use and ensure that all the suppliers in their supply chain (up to the mines), respect the CSR principles. They shall inform Nexans if any of the minerals integrated in the goods supplied fall into the category known as "conflict minerals". If so, suppliers are to provide the legally required information.

KEY PRINCIPLES

2. Environment & Product

ENVIRONMENT

Nexans suppliers shall minimize impact on the environment of their activities and develop solutions that contribute to preserve, save water and energy

Nexans suppliers shall implement environmental management principles, in order to minimize or avoid all hazardous releases to air, soil and water and greenhouse gas emissions. Suppliers shall avoid the use of hazardous substances. In the event no alternative is available, suppliers shall ensure their safe handling and disposal.

PRODUCT RESPONSIBILITY

Nexans suppliers shall incorporate environmental, health and safety criteria into their goods, in order to reduce their impact throughout their lifecycle while maintaining and/or improving their quality.

Nexans suppliers shall provide Nexans with all regulatory information and data relating to the goods, e.g. content of hazardous substances, safety, composition, etc.

Nexans values suppliers proposing goods with reduced environmental impact, focusing on :

- promoting circular economy (reduce resource consumption, use recycled and/or recyclable materials, optimize durability, reparability, recyclability...)
- minimising the use of hazardous substances and scarce resources
- reducing its carbon footprint during the whole life cycle

WASTE

Nexans suppliers shall endeavour to reduce waste generated from their operations and ensure the disposal of such waste in a manner that is respectful to the environment. Waste must be identified, controlled, and treated.

KEY PRINCIPLES

3. Ethics and Business Conduct

ANTI-CORRUPTION

Nexans suppliers shall ban corruption, bribes, kickbacks and other means of obtaining an undue or improper advantage. This includes the promising, offering, authorizing, giving or accepting of cash, fees, commissions, credits, gifts, favors, or anything of value that is either directly or indirectly provided in return for favourable treatment.

DATA PRIVACY

Nexans suppliers shall protect, including ensure IS security of, personal data of everyone they do business with, including suppliers, customers, consumers and employees (including IS security protection).

Suppliers shall comply with privacy and information security laws and regulatory requirements when personal information is collected, stored, processed, transmitted, and shared.

GIFTS & INVITATIONS

Pursuant to Nexans internal procedure:

- Nexans employees (including their families or relatives) must not accept gifts nor invitations. Sole exception are gifts offered purely as a courtesy, with a value lower than 50€ and no more than once a year from the same Nexans' business partner
- Nexans employees must not promise or offer gifts to our business partners (including their family or relatives) if the value exceeds 100€ and no more than once a year to the same business partner, unless duly authorized by a high-ranking manager. In which case, the authorized gifts and invitations must remain within the reasonable limits fixed by applicable laws and customary commercial practices.
- Nexans employees will never promise, accept or give gifts in cash.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

A "conflict of interest" exists when an employee's private interests supersede or interfere with his/her professional interests, or when an employee or a close relative might benefit personally from a transaction involving a supplier and Nexans. Nexans suppliers shall never take part in or seek to influence decision under circumstances that can create an actual or perceived conflict of interest. If Nexans suppliers become aware of a potential conflict of interest affecting Nexans, they will, without delay, notify Nexans.

COMPETITION LAW

Nexans pursues to build a business relationship based on honesty, trust, and mutual interest, and select suppliers through open and competitive bidding. Nexans suppliers shall act in accordance with the principles of fair competition and apply standards of fair business.

For a continuous improvement

Continuous commitment to CSR
